(dd/mm/yyyy)

1. The term 'ILU refers to 'International Leadership University' and 'you' or 'your' refers to the applicant submitting the application form to ILU. Should you become a student at ILU, these Terms and Conditions shall be incorporated into any agreement between you and ILU. Any offer made to you by ILU is made on the basis that by accepting such an offer you signify your consent to the incorporation of this notice as a condition of your enrolment.

2. Upon enrolment you must agree and abide by ILU regulations. These are available to view at ILU's offices upon request or on the ILU website. You may also be required to produce original translated (if required) documentary evidence of prior qualifications.

3. ILU will use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver the educational services advertised in its prospectus, website and other media. However, in certain circumstances it may be necessary for ILU, on short notice, to withdraw certain courses or make variations to the courses offered. Variations or withdrawal may be necessary as a result of lack of students, lack of teachers, timetable considerations, or changes in government policy, though this list is not exhaustive. Should circumstances interfere with ILU's ability to provide planned services, ILU will take reasonable steps to minimise the resulting disruption, but will not be liable for any loss or damage of whatever nature suffered by applicants in such circumstances. Information contained within the prospectus is to be used as a general guide only and, whilst ILU makes every effort to check the factual content at the time of publication, such information may be subject to change, error, or variation. ILU does not make any warranty about the accuracy of the information contained in its prospectus or other materials, in particular whether they are complete, accurate or up to date. ILU does not undertake any obligation whatsoever to provide educational services in the manner specified in its prospectus or in any other documents supplied by ILU, nor does it undertake any other obligation in respect of the provision of an educational services which is more onerous than the obligations set out therein.

4. Published fees stated are correct at the time of going to press, but may be subject to inflation, changing foreign exchange rates, and other price fluctuations. ILU reserves the right to alter fees at any time and for any reason.

5. You must pay your fees by the date agreed in your payment schedule in order to maintain your place at ILU. If you do not, your access to ILU facilities including access to the physical campus, the right to attend lectures or other classes (whether live or on Zoom), to access the e-library and computing facilities, or to receive transcripts, letters of recommendation, certificates, diplomas, or degrees, may be blocked. If you still do not pay within a reasonable time set by ILU at its sole discretion (normally 30 days), you may be expelled from ILU, which means you will no longer be a student at the University.

6. Before commencing your proposed course you are responsible to ensure you have sufficient funds or income to cover your fees as indicated in your offer letter. ILU reserves the right to rescind any offer it has makes to you if it transpires that you enrolled knowing you had insufficient funds for your proposed course of study.

7. Refunds are subject to the terms and conditions within the most current 'Student Refund Policy' which is available for view at ILU's administrative office, and which may be subject to changes, variations, and updates from time to time.

8. To the extent permitted by law, neither ILU or any of its partners or beneficiaries shall accept any liability for any loss or damage of whatever nature that may be suffered as a direct or indirect result of your application or enrolment at ILU.

9. Any offer you may receive from ILU is contingent on the understanding that by accepting it you have read and understood the rules and regulations of ILU and by signing this form you are confirming your agreement to them. Any false information provided, misrepresentation or omission in information may lead to the withdrawal of any offer made by ILU or to your immediate expulsion.
